Principal's Report

Kia orana, Talofa lava, Fakalofa lahi atu, Malo e lelei, Ni sa bula, Namaste, Greetings to all. It is always a very sobering experience at this time of the year to ask oneself, 'where did the year go?' and 'what have we achieved?' For senior students facing external exams and for staff preparing students for them, the final weeks are frantic and little time is available to reflect on the whole year. Given time however, it is very heartening to go back and see that we have achieved a lot.

This year began on a high note with the Art Department celebrating the success of Toni Gillbanks' Top Scholarship Award for Bursary painting and the equally impressive showing of the School Certificate Art candidates. Mr White, through his enthusiasm and leadership, has helped many a young artist over the past twelve years and while his new appointment at the Auckland Institute of Technology will be a great loss to us, we wish him every success in his new role. Staff movements this year saw the return of Mr Hodge from his overseas experience in England, the arrival of Mr Samu in Physical Education and the retirement of Mrs Caroline Walker from our resource room after eleven years of service to the College.

Mr Blake will be joining his family in Tauranga for 1993 and I take this opportunity to thank him for all his efforts as Sports Co-ordinator at Mangere College over the past three years. He will be sadly missed. Mr Allsopp is moving to Hutt Valley to continue teaching and follow business interests while Ms Nicholls returns to Australia to family and old friends. Both these people have contributed a lot to the life of this College, we are grateful and wish them every success in their new positions. Ms Herries will be on leave travelling overseas in 1993, Ms Blackwood will be on maternity leave for the year, while Ms Maskell returns after a term at home with her new baby son.

The school year was not without its sadness with the passing away of Mr Laurie Barson who served the Technical Department for years and the tragedy of Danny Sekona's death in May. These are never times we enjoy yet we can derive comfort in reflecting how the members of this College supported the families in their loss and remember all the happier moments when they were with us.

1992 saw the election of the second Board of Trustees for Mangere College under Tomorrow's Schools. I thank the old Board members for their interest and support of the College, especially Chairperson Mrs Arapera Royal Tangaere for her time and help.

A warm welcome to Mr Danny Winterstein as new Board of Trustees Chairperson and thanks go to the new Board for their interest and support of the school this year.

Collectively we have achieved a lot this year but the challenge for now and for future years is to help everyone achieve to the limit of their ability while maintaining the spirit of friendship and co-operation which is the special feature of this College.

In conclusion I thank all the staff and support staff for their efforts this year, wish all exam candidates success in School Certificate and Bursary and ask that those of you who are leaving school to enter the workforce, or continue your studies, do not forget our motto, Do your best and 'Seek the Heights'.

May you all enjoy a happy festive season.

A.P. Vaughan (Principal)

Taniela Sekona - 1976 - 22nd May 1992.

Ko e matāpulé'ni, koha taha fotu malimali mo fofonga fiefia he taimi kotoa pe. 'Oku'ne manako ki he faka kaunga tamaiki pea na'e 'ofa'i i he taha kotoa pe 'i he 'api ako 'ni. Ko Sesu na'a 'ne foaki,

Ko Sesu kuo 'ne to'o.

'Oku tau kei fakamālō lahi ai pe 'i he huafa 'a Sesu.

" Toka'I He Fiemalie. "

Danny Sekona, also known as Nela (which is short for his Tongan name Taniela), was a friendly and outgoing person who mixed with all different ethnic groups. Students at school say he smiled all the time which is their strongest memory of him. He persevered in the Tongan group because he loved his culture.

Danny's priority was to save money to pay for his flight to the USA so that he could see his father. He didn't want his mother to have all the burden of paying for everything. He was a generous person who gave his sister $20 every week, from the money he earned by working part-time in a bakery.

The very day he died he had bought a jug for his mother and family. The jug represented his love and was his last communication with his family. Unfortunately, its first use was for the mourners after his death.

He enjoyed going out with his friends, but his main aim was to get home early for work the next day. One of his close friends said, 'he was a caring person because he took care of his friends who had no place to sleep.'

All those who knew Danny will miss him very much, and will always have fond memories of him.

God brought him into this world and he took him back again, but still we are thankful for the time we had with him.

Board of Trustees

1992 has been a significant year for the first Board of Trustees elected under Tomorrow's Schools. It saw the completion of three years of change in the management of schools and brought into focus the need to look closely at what we are doing to improve the education of our students. The outgoing Board can take satisfaction in the knowledge that the facilities in the college are better now than they were three years ago, and in the area of financial planning/management we have come a long way in developing systems which allow us to get maximum benefit from the funds entrusted to us.

I thank the first Board of Trustees for their effort in supporting the interests of the school and pay tribute to past Chairperson Mrs A.Royal Tangaere, David Aretere Student Representative, Mrs Ah Sam Staff Representative, and Trustees Mrs D.Robson and Mr G.Andrews for their service to Mangere College. The new Board of Trustees is thankful to retain the services of Mrs D.Parsons and Mrs S.Galo while gaining the experience of Mr G.Rapana from our community. We welcome Mr Vautier as Staff Representative and thank Andrea Bakulich for her contribution this year in representing the students.

Professional development in 1992, one of our key objectives for the year, saw many staff sent on courses including conferences in Australia to better equip them to provide for the needs of our students. Of particular note was the initiative to train eight staff in the area of reading development across the curriculum. This will be an ongoing project and will result in the further development of curriculum materials appropriate to the needs of our students.

The Board is fortunate to gain the services of the new chairperson Danny Winterstein.

Special tribute goes to Mr Max White for his tremendous successes in School Certificate and Bursary Art with Toni Gillbank's Bursary Scholarship. His contributions to Mangere College over the past twelve years have benefitted many students and we wish him every success and fulfilment in his new position at Auckland Institute of Technology. Mr White is highly respected as an Art teacher, being one of the country's best. He will long be remembered by staff and students as a true professional and a trusted friend.

The Board wishes to thank all staff for their efforts and enthusiasm in supporting the many endeavours of our students this year. The success of our students in sports, cultural and academic areas is something we all share and derive strength from. Much has been achieved in the past three years but we look forward to further improvements in the future.

D.Winterstein
Chairman

Student Representative

Being the Student Representative of 1992 was a most interesting, exciting and challenging experience for me. I have enjoyed representing the students of Mangere College by attending meetings and seminars. At the meetings we discussed matters concerning the students, practically any major or minor issue affecting the school. I was amazed at how much the Board of Trustees covered, which made me realise the importance of the B.O.T. where no one has any worries about sharing ideas and opinions because there are no barriers to hold anyone back. I would like to thank the B.O.T. - especially the parents, for making me feel welcome. Our school is fortunate to have such an open-minded B.O.T. who always make the right decisions.

Through being the Student Rep I have developed friendships with many more students of this College, discussing their ideas and opinions or just a friendly chat about anything. I feel that it is important for any Student Rep to have a relationship with the students - because you are going to represent them so you should know who you're standing for - the students.

Another part of being the Student Rep is being on the Student Council. From here I also get ideas and problems to present to the B.O.T. I am very, very proud to say that the council of this year has been excellent (honestly). Thanks for hanging in there when things seemed impossible! All the best for next year. You are all a credit to this school and you have all proved it.

So sadly exams draw near, meaning school will come to an end. I have enjoyed representing the students, so I thank you, the students, for giving me this opportunity. I would like to thank everyone who supported me.

Seniors of 1993, think seriously of this position because it is so vital to have the voice of the students heard.

From your student representative, Deputy Head Girl, - all the best for the future and take pride in yourself and this school because it's an awesome school! I love this school! I love the students! I don't want to go, but I'd better! Remember to "Seek The Heights", let nothing stand in the way!

To Max with Love

What a man! At first, he seems domineering, loud and mean, but to tell the truth, this man is really all heart. When we first met Mr White about four years ago, we were a bunch of young, naive and very cheeky kids with no sense of direction whatsoever.

At first we expected Art to be just another period, where we could sit around and gossip about parties, the latest couples and who had the nicest body. But we were sadly mistaken. Art required intelligence, hard work and discipline. Art slowly became, to many of us, a subject that was not just as important as any other, but the most important.

Mr White showed us how to find our individual identities from our different cultural backgrounds and celebrate their importance. He encouraged us to express these through our artwork.

Over the years Mr White was not only our teacher but also our friend and close advisor.

He taught us that we didn't necessarily have to have talent to be successful at Art, or any other subject for that matter, but we had to have a willingness to work hard and persevere to get the results.

Mangere College has become renowned for the outstanding achievements of its art students, Mr White's teaching being the main reason.

Mr White makes the students study the art forms that are part of their cultural heritage. You have to research the meaning of the different patterns, materials and artistic techniques. From this knowledge you start to sketch the designs, improving on them with your own ideas. He then looks at your work and tells you what he thinks of your composition to correct any faults. From these sketches you move into final pieces.

While the paintings are in progress he will constantly be looking over your shoulder, driving you on to work to a higher standard. He might even take the brush out of your hand to demonstrate a new way to achieve the right effect. At last you might have a work that you can be proud of and that he will accept.

We have come to respect and admire him and he will always be a great influence and inspiration to those who have had the honour to have been taught by him.

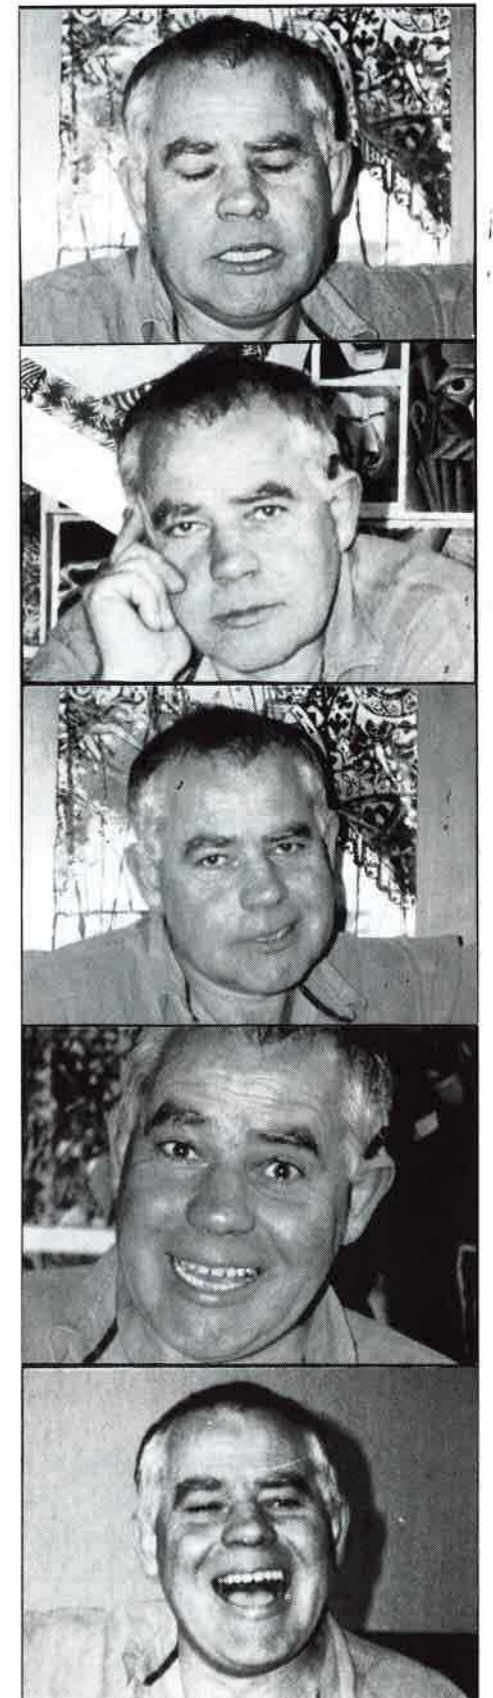

Good Luck and we love you!

Kia Kaha kia maia kia manawanui.

Ia e manuia matou te alofa ia te oe.

Talamonu moeafa atu.

Student Leaders

It was a great honour and privilege to become Head Boy, my chance to give something back to the school. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank Mr Vaughan and Ms Wills and the many other staff members who helped me personally, with guidance in steering me in the right direction. This year has been a great new learning experience for me, working with the students of Mangere College to make it a better place for students and teachers alike. I have enjoyed a lot of memorable moments at this school, starting back in February 3rd 1988. I can reflect on so many things that I have experienced and been witness to at this school such things as, socials, cultural festivals, school productions, swimming sports, and athletics, and our School Ball - a night which was enjoyed by those who attended. Thank you to those people who made this great occasion possible. I have met and seen many talented students on the sporting front and in the classroom, showing just how enriched our school is in the natural ability of the students.

Paul Singh

Faafetai lava.

To be elected Head Girl of Mangere College was an honour that I did not dream of when I first entered the college five years ago. It was the apotheosis of my career at secondary school which has given me so many fine memories to reflect on. I am grateful to all the teachers who have over the past five years shared with me their knowledge and given me the wisdom that I will take with me when I leave school.

It is not only the things that I have learnt in the classroom that will stay with me, it is also the experiences I have had through the many extra curricular activities. I have especially valued my involvement in the school productions, the Samoan cultural group and the speech competitions.

This has been a busy year for Paul and myself. Not only did we have our studies to attend to, we also had the job of greeting and thanking visitors as representatives of the school body. The major organisational event of the year was of course the senior school ball. This took a bit of time but we were very pleased with the way everything went and how the students supported this event. We honestly could not have got through it all without the help and encouragement of our Deputy Head Boy, Richard Ofahengaue, Deputy Head Girl, Andrea Bakulich and a strong and supportive Senior council.

I would like to thank our Principal, Mr Vaughan, for hearing our voices, thoughts and ideas and putting these into action. Thank you also to Ms Wills for always being there when we had problems to sort out. We wouldn't have achieved all that we did without you.

Thank you to the students of Mangere College. You are a special and unique group of people and when I leave, I will take with me fond memories of you all.

Soli Deo Gloria, Tofa Soifua.

Alas, yet another school year comes to an end. During 1992, a group of talented Senior students have been working behind the scenes, to make our school a better place. Councillors counselled their younger peers, and gave them guidance and leadership. Luckily we did not have to deal with many dilemmas in the school body.

To many students' dismay, we were unable to hold term socials, due to untimely events on the television set, but our spirits were not daunted. Full of ambition the council organised a more than successful Senior School Ball. It was superb! Motivation was the major factor in the functioning of the council.

We would like to thank Mr Vaughan for his help and support of the council, making matters easier to deal with. Thanks also to Mr Horne for his help. We are also grateful to have had Ms Wills in our council, for her endurance and ability to work with us. Special praise and recognition to Paul and Maggie for their great leadership and determination in directing the council throughout the year. Special recognition must also go to Andrea, an outstanding member of the council. Being the unrelentless drive and strength of the council she rose to the occasion showing us what to do. Lastly but certainly not least the Senior School Council - it's been great guys.

Richard Ofahengaue

'GO FOR IT!'

Anticipation

The crowd was silent.
We all waited for his arrival.
He was finally in the same room as us.
The tension built and there wasn't a person in the room who couldn't feel it.
The teachers were nervous.
I think the only person who wasn't nervous was Temuera Morrison, but only because he was used to the attention.
As time pressed on we fifth formers got to know our special guest.
He stood in front of us all and gave an inspiring speech about his life and how he got where he is today.
He made us laugh.
It came to the time everyone had been waiting for - the presentations.
Each one of the recipients of the award walked up with pride to shake Mr Morrison's hand, what a thrill! They could actually say, 'I shook the hand of Doctor Hone Ropata!'
It was time for him to go.
But I don't think I'll ever forget the day the star of the small screen came to Mangere College.

Kelli - Anne Manuel

Words of Wisdom

'If you want to get anywhere, you have to get your bum there! If you want to achieve anything, you've got to go for it!'
This was the message that Temuera Morrison gave to Mangere College students at the Fifth Form English Awards.
Mr Morrison honoured the students by being present to hand over their hard-earned certificates. Many of the students found the award ceremony fun and funny because of Mr Morrison's sense of humour.
Some remarked on how short he was compared to on television and others said he was a 'dish'.
Rhythm and Soul with Vocal Five put the icing on the cake by singing another version of 'Yesterday', 'Stand Up For Your Rights' and the school's 'Seek The Heights'.
Overall it was one of the most successful events held this year for English teachers and the fifth form students.

Esther King

Debating Team

It all began with an audience of 50 students in the auditorium and ended up with a radio audience all over Auckland. The Mangere College Debating Team went places this year. For the first time Mangere College decided to join the inter-secondary school Debating Competition. Mangere College took part in three competitions: the Auckland inter-secondary school competition, the Manukau City Council schools' debate and the Access Community Radio National Debating Championship.

All team members were involved in competitive debating for the first time. As the year progressed the team managed to achieve a very high standard. Mangere College had its share of victories over other schools and often would win the best overall speaker category. The inter-secondary schools' debates were held at Maclean's College. The Manukau City Council debate was held at the Metro Theatre and the Access Community Radio Championships in their studio.

Our team members were all from the 7th form. The members of the team varied throughout the competition but most often consisted of Maggie Winterstein, Rozina Umar, Laila Ah Lam and Michael Wong Tung. Every member had a chance to be the lead or second or third speaker as we wanted to give everyone experience. Other students who took the floor for the school were Moana Adams and Natasha Smith. The Mangere College team did very well in the inter-secondary schools' debates. They had victories over a number of highly ranked schools. The speakers were highly commended by the adjudicators.

Debating Team: Mr Peddie, M.Wong Tung, M.Adams, M.Winterstein, Mr Hodge, N.Smith, R.Umar.

The Manukau City Council debate was a good opportunity for the team to compete in front of a different audience which included representatives of the council.

The Community Access Radio debate was a very good experience for the three speakers who spoke first time live on air. Given that it was the first time for Rozina, Maggie and Michael in a studio in front of the microphones they did Mangere College and themselves proud.

I would like to pass on my sincere thanks to Mr David Hodge and Mr Bill Peddie who assisted us in all areas of the Debating Competition also to Mr Vaughan for giving moral support in the audience and assisting with transport.

The team gave up a lot of their leisure time to prepare for the debates including lunch hours, after school and study periods.

Mangere College has some very talented speakers who all showed that they can compete with the best in Auckland and win. With all the talent coming through in the lower forms it would be great to see debating continue at Mangere College in the years to come.

Rozina Umar

Speech Competition

Once again this year the School Speech Competition was a great success thanks to the talented efforts of the students at Mangere College.

All students participate in the competition and the best speeches from each class go forward to the finals which are held in the School Auditorium. The brave finalists representing their classes this year covered a wide range of topics, including Space, School, Sexism and even Speeches themselves. Some of the speeches were very moving, others were thought provoking while some made us all laugh. However, all of the speeches were delivered with a sincerity and determination which is a credit to each and every one of the finalists.

The judges were faced with the awesome task of choosing the best speeches, although I'm sure that you will all agree that every finalist was a winner.

My special thanks goes to all members of the English Department whose care, concern and hard work made the competition possible. Also a big thank-you to our judges Mr Horne, Ms Amos, Brya Taylor and Roger Jolly of Manukau County Council and our student judges Maggie Winterstein, Rosina Umar and Michael Wong-Tung. I would also like to mention the quiet efficiency of the judges' assistants Rapuani Strickland, James Arama and Kereti Peato.

I continue to enjoy working with and to be impressed by the high standards reached by the students of Mangere College. Long may it continue.

Senior

When car doors opened to reveal women stunningly dressed in evening wear, followed by their male escorts equally elegant in suits and tuxedos, one would think that the Oscar Awards were being held at Auckland's Convention Centre. Taking in the familiar features of teachers and students, it was plain to see that every effort was made to ensure not only a successful evening but a spectacular night to remember.

Those fortunate enough to attend Mangere College's Senior Ball of 92, were welcomed by a line-up of representatives from the school body.

The dance floor fulfilled its purpose throughout the night as people grooved to the soft melodic voice of Sala Tupe, (an ex-member of M.C.) who sang lead vocals for the band Axxent. Enjoyment was expressed by students when they flitted from table to dance floor. For some, it was a way to return the dance lessons Mr Samu gave prior to the ball. Thanks, Sir.

A sumptuous buffet dinner, provided for the occasion, consisted of various tempting mains, and was concluded by a range of mouth watering deserts. The students' response to the superb dishes that night can only be described by the cliché, 'Now you see it, Now you don't'.

Ball '92

Excitement of the Senior Ball reached its peak when people yahooped and cheered as three professional dancers took to the floor with a mixed style of Janet Jackson and M.C. Hammer. But then it was time for our own Head Boy, Paul Singh, and Head Girl, Maggie Winterstein, to glide onto the floor with the traditional waltz.

There were no words to describe the shimmering satin and silk of the ladies' attire or the suave, sophisticated look of the gentlemen, though when prizes for best dressed boy and girl were announced, there was no argument that Setu Setu and Rozina Umar should receive the title for their outstanding style.

Preparation for the Ball was done with the tremendous effort of the Senior Council. Their jobs included promotion of the Ball and inspection of the venue.

Mangere College's students' behaviour was praised by the Convention Centre's Staff, which is understandable, as all those who attended the Senior Ball partook in the making of a most memorable event. If next year's Ball is any rival we will have schools from all over banging down our doors for invites.

Salute to Broadway

One would be mistaken to think that the circus was being held in the Mangere College school auditorium as the curtains parted to reveal the stunningly colourful costumes of the cast of 'Broadway'.

'The world is a stage, the stage is a world of entertainment' was the motto of this year's musical production, 'A Salute to Broadway'. Dancers, actors, choir and band were formed through auditions.

The students used their talents to bring success to the production and enjoyment to the audience. This is the first musical since the 1987 production of Grease. Hard work, time and effort put in by the students everyday after school, lunchtimes and during the weekends paid off with the success of 'Broadway'. The team started off as keen individuals eager to pull off a great show. Time spent together brought laughter and tears as friendships were formed. This could be reflected physically to the audience, and professionally through the unique sound they developed as a whole.

Thanks to Ms Earthy and Mr Francis for directing a successful show. Also the crew Managers, Ms Herries, Mr Hodge and Ms Potter for helping make the show possible. Without them we would have been in dire straits - in the dark and naked! Jay Laga'aia was a great help to the and cast. A special thanks to all our fellow performers and stars in the show. Let us treasure the 'Broadway' memories and look forward to many more successful productions.

Spirit Of Adventure

First of all I would like to say thanks to Mr Vaughan and the staff who chose me to go on this trip. For eleven days, I went with thirty nine other students from all over New Zealand, each representing a college, and sailed from Tauranga heading north towards Auckland.

Each student was given a bus or flight ticket if required to get to Tauranga. Luckily all my expenses were paid for by the school sponsor, Master Mariners. I would like to thank them very much for the good job they are doing. Meeting new people on the first day was a good experience for me. A lot of them were from places that I have never heard of.

Throughout the trip I found that working on a sailing boat was really hard.

Each day started off at 6.00am with a swim around the whole boat which was about 40m to 50m long and 10 to 15m wide. After breakfast the flag of New Zealand was raised at exactly 8.00am. The plans for the day were given to us by the captain before we started cleaning the ship from top to bottom. It was hard work. Everybody had a job. I always got left to clean the toilets and the bunkroom floors.

We started sailing after the clean-up and that was even harder. We sailed the whole day until there was no daylight. At night we had dinner and a two hour lecture. By the time that finished it was time to go to bed.

The trip was unforgettable. Meeting new and crazy people from all over New Zealand was the main purpose of the trip and I encourage anyone to go on it.

Peer Tutoring

Tutoring this year was a great success. Not only were there many senior students willing to help younger students with their reading and work during SSR, some also gave their study periods during the day to help their peers.

Peer tutors have gained invaluable experience and skills from dealing with others on a one - to - one basis. This relationship between tutor and pupil is based upon friendship and trust which can become deeper than between a teacher and a class.

Tutors have developed worthy attributes such as patience and understanding towards younger people. They also get a great deal of satisfaction from the knowledge that the time devoted was both appreciated and helpful. We wish to thank all the tutors and Ms Parkinson for all their hard work.

Christian Fellowship '92

Jesus Is The Light Of Our Lives

Representatives of the Christian Fellowship enjoy the sun.

Christian Fellowship this year has been joyful and memorable. We found every moment of our meetings during Wednesday lunchtimes very precious and helpful. Each and everyone of us was there to sing, to pray and to praise the Lord and His great love for all of us. Fellowship this year has made a few changes. Last year's meeting day was Thursday lunchtimes, this year it's been organised for Wednesday lunchtimes due to the students commitments to other activities in the school. It's a great honour to be a leader of fellowship this year together with Polu Stowers, Tama Iotua and Paul Ta'amilosaga. We have been able to reach out to our fellow students by sharing with them a few scriptures from the Bible. Support from students within the Fellowship has been outstanding. We have all maintained a strong unity between each other no matter what church we come from.

The Christian Fellowship have been visited by a few speakers this year as well as having performances from Vocal Five. It was a bit sad to see only a few people turn up for the meetings, but we do hope that the forthcoming years will see more people come in and join in our great love for our Father.

On behalf of the leaders I would like to give thanks to the Fellowship for their commitment and time, but a special thanks goes to Mr and Mrs Stuart who have been great leaders to us all.

Duke of Edinburgh

Today is a time of importance when the need for a job is great and to do this as such you have to earn something like the Duke of Edinburgh award. The main things which are needed to gain the Award are as follows (you get to choose)-

Skills- Typing, tennis skills, (6 months)

Service- Rest-home, SPCA, Community Service (3months).

Expedition- 1 day away from home on a tramp etc.

Recreation- 3 months following a chosen activity.

The four headings above vary as you go through the stages from bronze - gold. To achieve this you must be willing to tackle them and try so that you should finish what you start. The Duke of Edinburgh is an ideal award especially when you are on a list for getting a job. You will enjoy doing the award as I have done. Before you attain your bronze medal you must go through a few tasks. You'll be given a brown book at the stationery shop (of course you have to pay $5.00 for the book). It may be a big embarrassment to go up and receive your award at assembly but at least you achieved it. Think about your future and your needs and last but not least set your goals and join the Duke of Edinburgh award and you too may be going on to your silver and gold medals.

Japan Exchange Student

I've always wanted to experience something new, that involves another culture. Living in Japan for three months was not an easy task for me. I left New Zealand on the morning of April 4th and arrived in Tokyo, Japan, eleven hours later. There was still another three hour drive to Utsunomiya, the sister city of Manukau.

I lived with my host family the Nagashima family, who have a daughter aged 17 and two sons aged 14 and 12 years old. I had a week to settle in with the Nagashima family before I started school at Sakushin Gakuin, the largest school in Japan. This school is not only a high school, but a kindergarten, and a girls' college all situated total of 10,000 students also a University, but that

The department that I the boys only department studying in the same were three different second grade with the history, three different Biochemistry, and students study about they are involved in one such as English classes, sports clubs, Art, and they go to their "juku" pm. They then go home to to bed from 12.00 pm to the classes were in Japanese out in the English classes.

I went to spend a day at two first one was Nishi Elementary helped them with English speaking and at the end of the day they sang a song in English, as a farewell from their school. The young ones wouldn't let us leave because they had never met foreigners before. Ichi Jyo Junior High School was the other school I visited. We did calligraphy, (Japanese writing with black ink), played games and had swimming competitions.

I really enjoyed the trip not only because I met new friends but because it broadened my outlook on life and it proved that I should never give up on any of my dreams. I intend returning to Japan sometime in the future to visit all the good friends that I have made and maybe help teach English at my old school, Sakushin Gakuin. If you ever get the opportunity to go to another country on a student exchange, go for it.

Journalism

This year's Journalism report is very difficult to write. Maybe it is because I am leaving; maybe I'm scared of repeating myself; maybe I just don't know how to write about this class of students who mean so much to me.

I am constantly rejecting magazine articles that hinge on 'thank you's' and now that is exactly what I want to do - thank my Journalism students for their professionalism, hard work, determination, humour and patience.

The 1992 class has been very successful. The school newspaper, Arcanum, received praise from both staff and students. The credit goes to the Journalists' adherence to deadlines, long hours put into layout and persistent editing to produce well written articles.

I seldom had to pressure the students, they took total responsibility for the production of both the newspaper and school magazine.

Advertising becomes more difficult by the year.

Despite constant rejection the students paced the streets so that we were able to finance the paper and go to print.

Work on the magazine has been considerably calmer than in the past. The students have been so efficient and committed that we have (almost!) kept to schedule. It is a massive task producing a 72 page magazine on eight computers. The students have had to coerce staff and students into writing articles, edit and often rewrite stories, type, desktop publish the pages, edit, edit and re-edit before pages are ready for photographs. The pressure to adhere to the printing deadline was greater this year as our printers are in Wellington. The Journalists have had to put an enormous amount of their own time into the project.

I have truly enjoyed working with this enthusiastic, committed, caring group. Well done team! I'm going to miss you all.

Cathy Herries (Journalism Teacher)

Management Team

Mangere College was awarded first equal with Kavanagh College from Dunedin for selling the most products in a business venture. The aim of the task, given by the Mayell Corporation, was to raise money for the school and gain practical experience in their business field.

Kiri Waetford was chosen to represent Mangere College in the Mayell's High School Business Challenge. She attended a Managing Director's meeting held in Noah's Hotel in Christchurch on the 26/27th May 1992 along with thirty other representatives throughout New Zealand. She learnt how to be 'The Boss' of the group and how to get everyone working as a team.

The team members were: Elisara Saina, Ngavaine Dave (Financial Controllers), Matiasi Lemi, Sally Lavea (Inventory Controllers), Nele Tanoai (Public Relations Manager), Paul Ta'amilosaga (Graphic Artist), and Stacey Wah (Sales Manager). Every individual had a responsibility which had to be carried out on a daily basis. The team was also expected to be at school 7:45 am every morning and to have meetings at interval, lunchtime and after school. Recreational activities also had to be given up.

Ms Ah Sam's lucky Bunnies come first equal.

The Management Team was fortunate enough to get sponsorship from Fliway, who helped pay for some expenses and gave valuable advice to the team. Special thanks to Richard Black, who gave a wonderful helping hand.

The experience was not all good, the team endured bad times as well, but no matter what happened we all stuck together. The gross profit the team expects to collect is $18,600 and nothing is holding them back.

Overall the challenge went extremely well and all the effort put into the business has finally being rewarded.

Thank you to all the students who participated in the fundraising campaign and also to the community and staff for their support.

Mathex 1992

Mathex is an annual event run by the Auckland Mathematical Association and sponsored mainly by Casio. It is open to all form one to four students in the greater Auckland area.

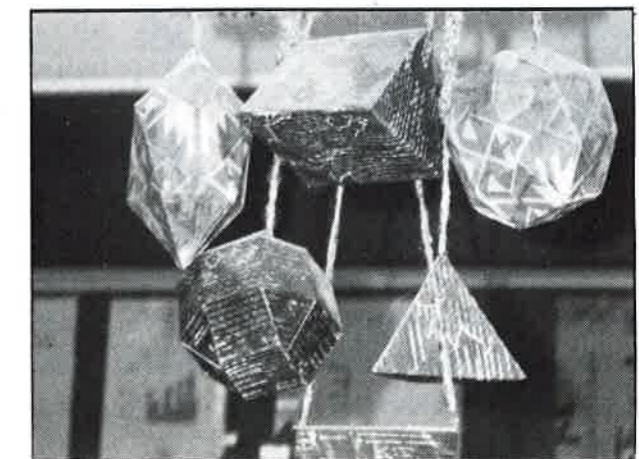

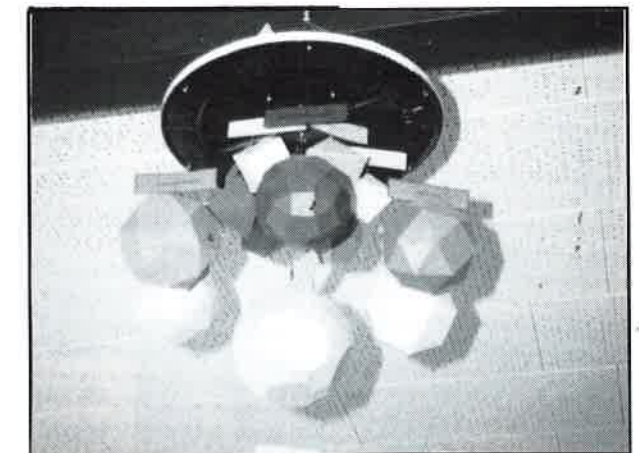

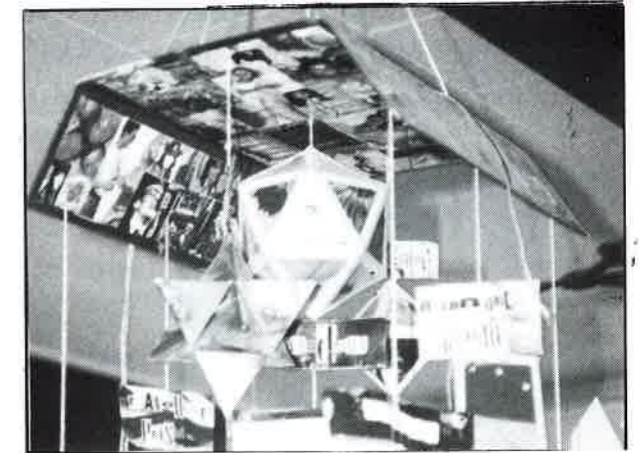

One part of the event consists of Mathematical exhibitions, which recently have been held at MOTAT. Students can exhibit in categories such as Mathematical research, art, history, and language styles.

Several students from Mangere College entered exhibits in three categories. Two students from 4Ha received awards for their Art in Maths exhibits: Anita Brooke was first and Joanne Browne second.

The other part of the event consists of a team quiz for each level. We entered two form three and form four teams. Many of these students spent time in "training" for this quiz. Although our teams were unplaced in the competition they certainly did not disgrace themselves or their school.

The general consensus of our participants was that the Mathex event was fun and well worth it. Any students interested in Mathex 1993 should speak with their Maths teacher early next year. Have a go.

Reunion 1992

At the end of 1991 Mangere College completed 21 years. Ex-pupils suggested a reunion but the problem was how to get in contact with the thousands that had passed through the school.

With the help of the Mangere Library and local business we were able to advertise the event. Slowly the network began and as the 23rd September approached the school telephone became red hot. "Is it too late to enrol? Can we still come?". They actually wanted to come back to school, and what is more, they actually came early.

The evening was a very low key affair giving students exactly what they wanted - plenty of feed, lots of school photos to laugh at, lots of ex-staff to chat to and lots of old friends to reminisce with. Nobody wanted speeches. This reunion was typical of Mangere College - friendship with plenty of hugs and kisses.

They came from far and wide. Ex-staff flew from Wellington for the event. Ex-students told staff they hadn't changed and teachers told ex-students how much they had changed. The age barrier no longer existed. The majority of students had not been in the auditorium before. It did not exist in their day. They remembered assemblies squashed up in the H Block hall and the foundation students of 1971 remembered assemblies out on the field - where, depended on which way the wind was blowing.

This reunion was organised by staff and financed by the Board of Trustees. The next reunion will be organised by ex-students for ex-students. A group of committed Mangere College enthusiasts have already volunteered to do the organisation. Will it be after 25 years, that is 1995, or will there be another evening in 1993?

Vocal Five

Vocal Five for me was a real blessing and I thank God for giving us the opportunities and talent to sing together.

Vocal Five did not really start until we heard that there was a Talent Quest at the Metro Theatre and we liked the sound of the $500 so we decided on a singing group with five members. I got two basses and three tenors from Mangere College's own Madrigal Choir. These people were Darius Tagaloa, Tamatoa Iotua, Patrick Isa'ako, Kula Kaitu'u and also Polu Stowers.

We started out having casual practices, not really learning the songs the way we should have. The week before the talent quest we worked real hard to polish off what songs we knew. It looked as though the practices paid off and we won the talent quest. This was to be the foundation of a great friendship.

The winning of the talent quest gave us confidence which led to winning a talent quest at Hunter's Plaza and third place at a Youth for Christ talent quest. This also led to an appearance on TV3's morning show Yahoo.

We came across lots of friends who have helped us through this. We would like to thank Vocal Ambassadors and Rhythm and Soul in particular.

Our parents and Ms Earthy played a major part in what we achieved. Thanks also for the support from Mangere College.

Patrick Isa'ako.

Madrigal

It was a good start to the year for the Mangere College Madrigal Choir. The Madrigal choir entered the Auckland Girls Grammar School choir festival. Even though they did not make it into the finals, teachers from other schools loved the singing and recommended them as favourites. The Madrigal choir has increased in numbers from last year. This year there are forty members and they hope to have new talent joining next year.

This year the choir concentrated on the school production "Salute to Broadway". Thanks to the choir teacher, Richard Francis, and music teacher, Brenda Earthy, the Madrigal choir has been like a big family.

They hope to succeed in the future.

Cultural Exchange

In September a group of ten French-speaking girls arrived in Auckland to be hosted by senior students at Mangere College during their first week in New Zealand.

The girls came from a small village school on the east coast of New Caledonia, the College de Canala. They have about 150 students compared to our 950 so it was a big experience for the girls to come here.

The visit is part of a cultural exchange programme between our two communities. Next year it will be our turn to visit New Caledonia. The French students' travel is subsidised by the French Government, but they also do a lot of fundraising, just as we do for our two yearly trips.

The French Department regards our exchange programme as an important feature of teaching our subject. No classroom work can compare to what students learn from travelling overseas and experiencing another culture first hand.

Bastille Day

Le 14 juillet
Jour de la Fete National

"What are these flags doing in H10?"
"Miss, why are you hanging flags in the staff room?"

The 14th July is a special day in France, everyone celebrates this day which is called 'Bastille Day'. It marks an important event in French history when a famous prison in Paris called 'La Nicky and Naomi experience a taste of France.

Bastille' was stormed by people and the prisoners were set free. This began the revolution which resulted in France losing its royal family. The country is now a republic governed by an elected President. Enough of the history lesson!

Today French people celebrate Bastille Day as a national holiday, so not wishing to allow an excuse for a feed to pass us by, French students and the staff of Mangere College enjoyed croissants and pains au chocolat with their morning tea.

Many thanks must go to the dedicated group of fourth form 'francophones' who gave up their precious time in the holidays to make the beautiful flags which decorated the school.

Merci Beaucoup, Joanne, Nevenka, Tracey, Tuahou, Taumaoe, Maria, Naomi, Ososo, Irene et Maki!

Te Whanau Maori

Tena Koutou Katoa,
Tena Koe te tumuaki Mr Tony Vaughan, nga mihi nui ki a koe. Tena Koutou nga mahita me nga taurira o tenei kura. Tena Koutou Katoa.

The whanau (meaning family) class at the moment consists of a third, fourth and fifth form class. The main reason for the existence of Te Whanau o te Reo is for students to strive for excellence and attain this excellence in their Maori world and in the Pakeha world. Many events have occurred this year involving Te Whanau o te Reo. We have participated in the Polynesian Festival, Maori Speech Competitions, trips to the university, a performance at the Travelodge and this year's school reunion. We were also fortunate and honoured to say a personal farewell to fellow student Taniela Sekona.

Our fourth form students this year will be sitting School Certificate alongside fifth formers. This will be the second year that this has happened with tremendous success from the fourth formers who sat School Certificate Maori last year. Good luck with your results our teina. We hope that you all gain the mana that we gained.

Kia kaha, kia maia, kia manawanui.
Tena Koe te Rangatira. Mrs Green, we thank you for all the love and strength that you have given to us.

We love you and will never forget you for what you have given us. Ko koe to poutoko manawa o tenei whanau. Ko te tumanako kei te noho tonu koe i waenganui i a matau. Engari ma te atua hei manaki i a koe. We thank all the teachers, parents, students and outside help who have supported us this year. A special thanks goes out to Betty King for all the time that she has devoted to us.

To our Polynesian, Asian, Indian and Pakeha brothers and sisters, we would just like to say - be proud of who you are and stand up for your cultures and what you believe in always. Most of you are very fortunate to know your language. We as the whanau have that same precious gift of our ancestors.

No reira tena koutou tena hoki tataua katoa.

Kalapu Samoa

For the third consecutive year, Mangere College's Samoan group participated in the annual Auckland Secondary Schools' Maori and Pacific Island Cultural Festival.

When the request for interested students was made, it was pleasing to see so many eager students wanting to take part and learn about their culture. Unfortunately, the limit for the festival was 50 performers, so sadly the group had to be reduced from 70 students to the required number.

This year the group ranged from third formers to seventh formers. It was a pleasant surprise to see a large number of males wanting to join the group.

Five students were elected as leaders to assist Mrs Ah Sam, they were: Nive Chan-Ting, Maggie Winterstein, Andrea Bakulich, Allan Alo and Setu Setu.

Maggie and Nive prepared the Sasa while Miriama, Iuniversity and Mile provided the Ma'ulu'ulu.

Lunchtimes, after school and weekends were sacrificed so that the group could prepare their performance. We also had a live-in at school on March 6 and March 7 to perfect our items. Over that period of time everyone in the group befriended each other, friendships were formed and we became one big family. A change in the uniform was needed, so this year the group went from a red to blue uniform with Mr White, Mr Christo and the Art Department designing the black, white and brown Pacific patterns which they printed onto the uniform.

Although we did not win any prizes for our performance we won the respect of each other. We learnt so much in so little time - culture, pride and friendship.

Many thanks to Mrs Ah Sam for the time and effort she put into this group. Your continuous support and patience, your drive and determination kept us in top form to make it all possible.

Thank you also to the Art Department, and parents who supported us.

See you all next year. Till then, Alofa'aga mo outou uma.

Kulupu Tonga

This year has been a busy, historical, and certainly a very successful one for the Tongan Culture group. None of this came to be without a lot of hard work and dedication from the members of the group, and plenty of support from the families, friends and teachers.

One of the main events of this year, was the Inter-school Cultural Festival Competition, which was held at Nga Tapuwae College.

Preparing for the festival required a lot of our own time and effort to perfect our performances.

We started our practices one month before the festival, spending each day after school from 3.15 to 9pm, and even our Saturdays from 12pm to 4pm.

But all this time and energy was worth it when we performed at the festival, and for the first time in Mangere College's history, our Tongan Group came first in both the Ma'ulu'ulu' and the Soke. We were also given the honour of being the best loved school. So all the hard work paid off.

We were then invited to perform at Ngaruawahia for the Maori Queen's coronation and that also was very successful and fun too. Another special event this year was the Tongan Speech Festival. Ofa Tongotongo represented us in the seniors, and Fusi Tupou represented us in the juniors. Fusi came second in the junior competition, and Ofa was commended for her ability to use traditional Tongan.

A Tongan committee was then set up, which included parents, students, and the Tongan tutors. This brought the parents and the students closer together. We have certainly enjoyed this year's events, with our parents and the tutors.

Leaders of the Tongan Culture group were 'Ofa Tongotongo, Tali Tangataevaha, Tumaile Tasola, and Jane Emelio.

Teachers involved were Ms Webster and Ms Parkinson. Many thanks to them for their support and effort into putting events together, and especially for putting up with us.

Many thanks to our tutors Maloni Tutuila, Sesimani Ofahengaue, and Takai Mahina for their patience, knowledge, and their time.

We are also very appreciative to Mele Terepo for being our group guardian, and many times the mother of the group.

'Oku hounga 'aupito kia mautolu 'ae tokoni, moe poupu na'e fai e he taha kotoape ki he kulupu Tonga ko eni.

Malo 'aupito.

Faka'apa'apa lahi 'atu.

Jane Emelio.

Kalapu ha Niue

Fakalofa Lahi Atu, Greetings to you all. It gives me great pleasure to write about this year's Niuean group.

This year was the first time that the Niueans of Mangere College have taken part in the cultural festival, held this year at Nga Tapuwae College. It was a lot of sweat and a whole new beginning for the Niuean students of Mangere College.

It was hard to organise practices during lunchtimes, after school and during the weekends, but we all worked together as a team and made it through practices in the school gym.

The leaders of the group were Cynthia Taifinofu, Tapu Kulatea, Jennifer Kalopeau and Iki Tapuosi. The Niuean group consisted of about 30 girls and boys. The items we performed that day were one olden day song and the Ta-me. Both these songs had actions for us to perform to. We also did a war dance (Koli Meke). The group took the awards for second place in the olden day song and first place in the war dance.

All our thanks goes to our supporting parents Aunty Uina, Mrs Meti, Aunty Faai, Aunty Sia Maiti and also to Uncle Nui. Also a very big thank you to our mother, Veta Saletieluu, who taught us the songs and thanks to Foiki who helped teach us our winning performance. Thank you too to Barry for playing the instrument for our war dance. Thanks to Soina and Maitii for taking all the students home after practices. Last but not least, a big thank you to our teacher, Mrs Ah-Sam, for giving us advice and encouragement for without her help there would have been no Niuean group.

It was a great joy for me as an ex-senior student to start up a group at Mangere College this year. I hope that those who took part will carry on the Niuean group at Mangere College in the future.

Rugby

First Fifteen

The first fifteen played 15 games this season, losing three. Their highest score was 83-3 versus Aorere. The team was captained by Tumaile Tasola. Sola Lam, Lloyd Rolfe and Richard Ofahengaue played excellently all season. Paul Singh was the most improved player of the season. The apex of the season was, of course, taking the Shahn's cup for Mangere College at the end of the season tournament. All players deserve special commendation for their effort throughout the season.

Second Fifteen

The second fifteen played ten games this season and won all ten. Their best winning score was 73-0 versus St Kentigerns. The team was well captained by Acey Motuga and Henry Peterson in his absence. George Halliday was the top scorer.

Fourth Grade

The fourth grade played twelve games this season, winning seven and losing five. The team was captained by Vili Siafolua with an increasing contribution from Sam Samuels and Niko Tovio.

Basketball

Once again it has been another successful year for basketball at Mangere College, particularly for the Senior teams. Without the valuable assistance of Mr Samu we wouldn't have been able to field the number of teams. We have run the junior boys' competition here at school on Tuesday evenings - so many thanks must go to him.

The following is a brief summary of each of the teams.

Back row: S.Lynch, Mr Blake, N.Tuatagaloa.
Front row: A.Tuletufuga, C.Leasi, J.Malo.

Back row: Mr Blake, T.Fangupo, N.Tovine, A.Fesolai.

Senior Boys A

An outstanding year, only one loss in the entire season! Unfortunately, the final went to Otahuhu College who displayed a little more composure under pressure. All our players played to a high standard particularly Charlton Leasi and Sean Lynch. The hustling 'fast-break' style was exciting to watch. Well done, boys!

Senior Boys B

Once again an outstanding result. The team easily cleaned up the Manukau Secondary Schools' Senior B competition. Most players could have played for the A team but opted instead for the more laid back, lower pressured team. An outstanding team effort.

Senior Girls A

At the time of writing, there is a three way tie for first place in the Manukau Secondary School Senior Girls' Competition between Mangere, Papatoetoe and Manurewa. The girls' team had an outstanding team spirit which was reflected in their resolve and outstanding defensive play. Congratulations on a second placing in the Northern Region Tournament against literally scores of other teams! Many thanks must go to Edward Ili for his assistance in transporting and managing the team for the tournament.

Mr Blake

Back row: M.Teinaki, S.Lavea, A.Bakulich, N.Vimahi, F.Fotualii, C.Ili.
Front row: E.King, S.Tulai, C.Matara, S.Tutavaha, A.Leleisiuao.

Junior Boys A & B

Although results were not as outstanding as the Senior teams', the effort and enjoyment was just as outstanding. There were some great efforts but on most occasions the opposition towered over our boys (steroids!) and our group was often outsized! It was a pleasure to see the enjoyment of the Junior B team - their sportsmanship was always outstanding and they never gave up.

Junior Girls A & B

Once again an enjoyable year with the young girls' teams. Both teams were always competitive. Perhaps the A team didn't reach its full potential and with the loss of many players to the school musical late in the season, the remaining players often struggled to put a full team on court. Nevertheless, a pleasing result to finish in the top third of the competition. The B team was most impressive, putting many schools' "A" teams under all sorts of pressure. Vainia and Lynette look exciting players of the future and I look forward to 1993 with them in the Senior Girls A team.

Netball

This year Mangere College had four netball teams playing in two separate competitions and two Auckland-wide tournaments.

The netball year started in February with the local community competition held at the Mangere Recreation Centre on Friday evenings. In this competition we entered a third form team and a fourth form team. Most of the games were played against teams that included older, more experienced players. Even though the Mangere College teams were in most instances quicker, fitter and younger, the older teams generally managed to scrape home as winners. Next year this competition hopes to include a separate college grade.

Four players were awarded with Kentucky Fried Chicken 'most valuable player' awards. They were Kaitai Enoka (3Ni), Christine Ripikoi (4Ma), Tupikepikie Sadaraka (3Tk), Dianna Brewster (3Ca). Throughout this competition the girls played clean, fair netball and were always well presented and punctual to all games. The organisers and supporters congratulated the school on the girls' behaviour and commitment.

In term two on Wednesday afternoons the Manukau Secondary School Netball Competition at Browns Road, Manurewa, was held (generally in the rain). Ten schools from South Auckland produced some tough competition. Mangere College entered a third form A team and a senior B team.

The third form A team was a well drilled team with lots of natural talents. They played well throughout the season and ended up fourth in their grade. Tuapikepikie Sadaraka (3Tk) was awarded an ASB fair play award which was presented to her by Joan Hodson, Rita Fatialofa and Yvonne Willering. Congratulations, Tu!

The senior B team finished 7th in their grade in the Manukau Secondary School Netball Competition. On some occasions they demonstrated sparks of brilliance that could have been capitalized on. Valuable players in the team were Lee Wetini (4Gn), Glenys Welsh (4Hr), Tasha Turu (4Wh), and Siale Lai (6Sb).

The third form netball team played in two tournaments during the year, the Papakura Coca Cola Tournament and the ASB Combined Points Tournament. The girls played well on both days but did not get through to the semi-finals as the competition was very strong.

Well done, netballers! A special thank you to Andrew Hewett who was our official umpire at all tournaments again this year.

Coach and Manager; Ms Wills, Ms Nicholls

Volleyball

What a year it's been for the Senior Girls' Volleyball Team. Getting started at the beginning of the year was a challenge but the girls did it.

We practised every Friday after school until 5.30pm and a couple of lunch times each week mastering the basics, brushing up on our skills and following up on new routines for our competitions at Otahuhu College every Thursday afternoon.

Unfortunately, it wasn't enough to get us into the top four to compete at the Auckland

Champs. We had a style of our own and we were a team on and off the court. We worked together.

Thank you to our manager Sarah Tulai and also Andrea Bakulich for outstanding spikes on the court which led to victory.

We couldn't have done it without the continuous support (and occasional lecture) from Mr Tangaere, Mr Samu and Sa, so from all of us girls, a big thank you!

Tofa Soifua
Laila Ah Lam and the Volleyball crew.

Junior Girls Team - Back Row: Poto Fuimaono, Numera Foisa, Tina Fune, Telesia Tugalua, Anna Esa. Front Row: Katie Taumanupepe, Loisa Foisa, Faaliliu Danielson, Tapa Pomare, Moaina Lepupa, Easter Samuelu, Lopeka Auimaigi.

Badminton

Three teams were entered in the South Auckland competition this year. One in the B Grade and two in the C Grade. We had mixed fortunes, mainly due to the incorrect grading of some Asian students. However, our players put up a great fight and got a lot of pleasure from their games. Congratulations to Kevin Harrison who went through undefeated in his singles matches. Look forward to seeing you all again next year, plus some new faces.

Kevin Harrison, Ms Whittaker, Lui Tugaga, Andrew Tugaga.

Rose Otene, Rozina Umar, Moimoi Ofahengaue, Ma'ara Romia, Ms Whittaker, Rhonda Aue, Monica Henry, Rachael Pasifatama.

Hockey

The 1992 Hockey season was another successful one for Mangere College Hockey Girls. Although there were a few new faces, the blend of youth and experience meant that we came together as a team.

Practices started at the beginning of March. Fitness was lacking and skills needed to be sharpened. The hockey season runs from March to the end of July, so it was essential that those who decided to join were dedicated, hard-working and unselfish in their commitment.

The competition this year was played on Saturdays. The team played nine games, drew one, lost one and won the rest. The team managed to make it to the finals. But unfortunately, the opposition was too strong. The girls had to settle for runners-up for this year's season. Our appreciation goes out to our manager, Mr Des Johnson, and his daughter, Francine, for their great effort and support which helped the girls to keep their feet on the ground. Last but not least, our own committed coach, Ms Cathy Herries, who dedicated a lot of effort to the team practices and games. The girls are grateful to her and will surely miss her next year. Our thanks also goes out to supporters who turned up to games regularly. We're looking forward to next year's season - come join us!

Kirikiti

Yes, it's good old Samoan style cricket! This year for the very first time, Mangere College had a Kirikiti team. This team was made up of boys and girls of mixed cultures and ages; of Tongans, Niueans and Samoans, both seniors and juniors. Also, this year for the first time there was a Secondary Schools' Kirikiti tournament. Unfortunately we were unable to attend this tournament due to our Athletics day being on the same day. We were disappointed but our spirits were quickly lifted after being told that we were to play an actual game with our neighbouring school Nga Tapuwae College.

The game was not at all competitive nor serious in any way. Instead it was a time when both teams enjoyed themselves to the max.

We talked and laughed with each other and it was a good opportunity in which to fellowship with our neighbouring school. Who won? - that's not the point! The point is that as a sports team representing our school we loved it, being together, sharing jokes not just amongst ourselves but with our neighbours.

This year's Kirikiti team was an excellent team. It was a perfect example of how a sports team should be. Thanks to all the students who took part in this first ever Kirikiti team.

Tofa Soifua.

Andrea Bakulich

Kirikiti Team: L.Rolfe, D.Lam, E.Niumata, S.Lam, S.Motu, Mr Blake, H.Tuipeu, S.Samuelu, S.Tulai, A.Leleisiua, M.Craig, S.Pallegutu, S.Tutavaha, A.Bakulich, S.Setu, H.Peterson, T.Salalea, P.Tui, F.Fotuall'i.

Soccer

Soccer Team: E.Samuel, S.Ofa, A.Alafa'apae, T.Pomare, K.Enoka, P.Iafoulua, J.Lazaro, Mr Allsopp, K.Heka, C.Anderson, S.Terry, E.Witchman, M.Helekuasa, M.Tupou.

Soccer had faded away at the college so we looked at building for the future. A junior girls' and boys' team was formed with the girls being more committed and enthusiastic. The girls' team played three games against mixed and senior teams from Marcellin, Rangitoto and Nga Tapuwae and did very well against experienced competition. The players attended practices every week and a lot of fun and friendly competition was had by all.

This year our school was strongly represented once again in the inter-school competitions held at the Gillies Ave stadium on Friday evenings.

In Term I six teams took part in the knock-out tournament. Our No. 2 team of Bob Motuga, Donny Itamua, and Taupiri Mea came 2nd in the B Grade. Team No. 3 Nicholas Simi, Maurice Tupe and Gin Won Ngan won the C grade competition.

The Term II tournament is more demanding. We had eight teams competing, ranging from the D2 grade. Our best team performances were:

TEAM 4 - B2 Grade runners up (Donny Itamua, Junior Kavariri, Gin Won Ngan)

TEAM 5 - C2 Grade winners (Taupiri Mea, Riki Terekia, Nicholas Simi, Maurice Tupe)

TEAM 6 - C4 Grade 3rd position (Rose Otene, Peter Letiu, Nele Tanoa'i, Kiri Waetford)

TEAM 7 - C4 Grade runners up (Maara Romia, Ricker Aue, Maliko Levao)

There were several notable individual performances as well.

Ode Matara	(A2 grade)	Won 12	Lost 3
Donny Itamua	(B4 grade)	Won 11	Lost 4
Gin Won Ngan	(B4 grade)	Won 13	Lost 2
Taupiri Mea	(C2 grade)	Won 11	Lost 3
Ricky Terekia	(C2 grade)	Won 12	Lost 4
Rose Otene	(C4 grade)	Won 14	Lost 0
Peter Letiu	(C4 grade)	Won 11	Lost 2
Ricker Aue	(C4 grade)	Won 11	Lost 1

The students get a lot of pleasure out of the Table Tennis tournaments and it has been great to see the satisfaction they receive by mixing with players from other schools. The standard of their performance improved considerably throughout the term.

I look forward to leading the teams again next year and would be delighted to see more new faces in the squad.

Coach, Organiser Mr Stuart

Tennis

This is our second successful year in the Inter-School Competition, which is organised by the Auckland Secondary Schools' Lawn Tennis Association. The competition was organised into zones, each zone consisting of five schools. This year we had two teams; intermediate boys and senior girls both competing in southern zone one. Last year, the intermediate girls beat five schools winning nine out of ten games, to become zone winners. Each player received a certificate from the above association. The Senior girls team won the Southern Zone One Competition by beating five other schools: Kings College, McAuley College, Otahuhu College, Papatoetoe High and Manurewa High School.

The winners were:
H. Talamaivao, 3rd form girls' singles
L. Fepulea, 4th form girls' singles
S. Uta, 4th form boys' singles

Softball

Girls

This was a keen and competitive team who had some bad luck which eliminated the team from the top four to compete in the Auckland Regional Finals. However, we did get to play the fifth place getter in the Auckland zone, Marist Sisters where we had a win. Thanks must go to Charlotte Arona's older brother, Robert, for coaching the team.

Back row: M. Taufou, O. Matara, M. Romia. Second row: M. Teinaki, T. Umar, L. Fepulea'i, R. Otene, T. Faye, M. Galvin, Mr Lal. Front row: R. Strickland, E. Taukafa, C. Matara, R. Ofahengaue, M. Henry, E. Rea, N. Talamaivao.

Finally my special thanks to Mr Lal for being our coach. I would also like to thank the other teachers and students who helped to make our 1992 tennis season a success.
Ode Matara

Boys

There was an abundance of talent in this team, which was noted by some spectators. However, due to the lack of a coach and practice time they were unable to compete on an equal footing with the competition organisation of the other teams. Thanks must go to Tim Fangupo for his organisation and role as captain.
T. Whittaker Manager

Back row: K. Winterstein, T. Fangupo, P. Stowers, L. Rolfe, N. Bates, A. Tima. Front row: J. Hauraki, P. Letiu, H. Peterson, S. Lam, T. Iotua.

Touch Rugby

Girls' Touch Team: S.Lavea, C.Matara, O.Roberts, V.Teraitua, A.Leleisituao, Mr Blake, M.Foliaki, M.Everitt, M.Henry, K.Turu, S.Tulai.

Girls' Touch Team

Mangere College senior touch rugby girls made it into the quarter finals at the Auckland Touch Rugby Tournament, which was held at the Tamaki Rugby grounds. The four teams which made it to the quarter finals were Auckland Girls' Grammar, Otahuhu College, Hillary College and our own Mangere College. We played Hillary College, but unfortunately the opposition was the more experienced side and Mangere College were not able to play in the finals. The team, who only came together a week before the tournament, put in a lot of effort and determination and came up with good results. These results showed that Mangere College are improving and gaining more experience each year.

I would like to thank Mr Blake and Mr Levi for their support, cooperation and techniques which we have used this season. The players had a great time and will treasure it always. Looking forward to next year's games.

M.Foliaki

Boys' Touch Team: M.Itiri, L.Rolfe, Mr Blake, F.Tauakipulu, P.Singh, S.Farrell, H.Peterson, A.Lam, S. Lam, R.Ofahengaue.

Boys' Touch Team

This year's touch rugby team played in the Auckland Secondary Schools' Touch Rugby Tournament in Tamaki. The boys' touch team performed well in their section; they won two games and lost one, which put them into the plate section. However they narrowly lost to Otahuhu College in a drop off down to four players.

Wrestling

Wrestling Team: A.Cuthers, N.Simi, R.Ropati, M.Ofahengaue, G.Halliday, M.Levao, Mr Burnham, M.Henry, M.Tavui, J.Arama, A.Strickland, T.Lane, M.Levao. Absent: P.Peteru, M.Peteru, P.Tuiletufuga, F.Sifaheone.

From its beginning several years ago our college wrestling teams have met many challenges, gained many medals and become a respected school in the wrestling arena.

In the 1992 season again we proved that our college students are good wrestlers by the amount of success we have achieved.

The first competition was the Novice Champs held at Kelston Boys High School where only four wrestlers took part:

Aramaki Strickland - 3rd in the 68kg class
Moimoi Ofahengaue - 2nd in the 70kg class
Falani Sifaheone - 1st in 74kg class
George Halliday - 1st in the 81kg class

Although we entered only a small number of wrestlers the results showed 100% success. Each of these boys was given a special certificate which I hope they will keep to reflect on in future years. The second competition was the Auckland open champs held at Mt Albert Grammar School, where 18 wrestlers took part.

The results of this meet are as follows:

John Tonga - 1st - 43kg class
Maliko Levao - 2nd - 60kg class
Aramaki Strickland - 3rd - 60kg class
Tony Lane - 5th - 60kg class
Brian Mafi - 4th - 70kg class
Moimoi Ofahengaue - 5th - 70kg class
James Arama - 1st - 83kg class
Monica Henry - 1st - 63kg Senior girls class
Malifa Levao - 3rd - 74kg class
Falani Sifaheone - 5th - 74kg class
Paul Tuiletufuga - 6th - 74kg class
George Halliday - 3rd - 81kg class
Peter Peteru - 2nd - 88kg class
Moses Peteru - 3rd - 88kg class
Robert Ropati - 5th - 88kg plus class

This year in October was the first time a junior school competition has been held. The meet was designed mainly to prepare new wrestlers for 1993 where the first competition takes place in March. This will be an ideal opportunity for new wrestlers (boys and girls) to see if they like the sport, and represent our college.

Monica Henry was the only girl in our squad this year. There is a special section for the ladies to wrestle ladies and Monica had very little competition, so in 1993 I'll be looking for a big increase in girl wrestlers.

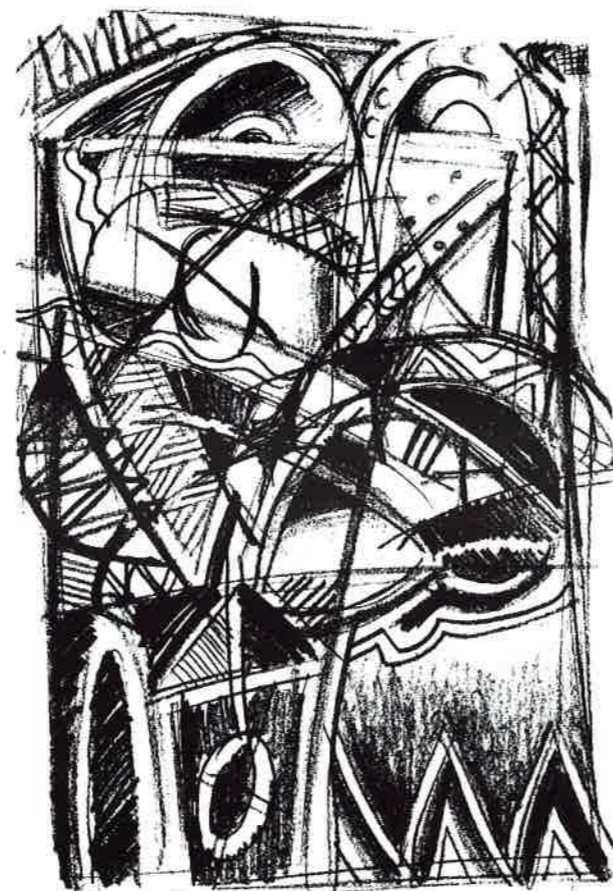

In closing I would like to say that as the team coach I was very impressed with the members professional attitude and behaviour and look forward to another great season in 1993.

Mr Burnham (Wrestling Coach).

Colourless Cheeks

I opened up to show you myself, me, Annie B.
Come on my flower, open for me, I beg you!
You opened up slowly, just like a flower
You were beautiful, strong and colourful!
Yet from afar, as I sat and gazed,
I realized - I was not the only one amazed
Some passed you by, taking a quick sniff of your scent.
But I stopped, took a deep breath, and
Then another, until I could breathe no more,
You opened your petals, allowing me to see
More of your developing beauty
I looked closely, your colours began to reflect off my cheeks
Now no matter how close I come to you,
My lungs remain unfilled,
My cheeks colourless.....

Friend or Foe

I weep for you
My eyes raw
I bleed for you
My soul sore
I ache for you
My body yearns
I love you
Yet no return.

Love

A tale as old as time
As I tell you this rhyme
Love will conquer all
For it is the power divine,
Love me or leave me
To be or not to be,
Love can change all,
If you only believe

The Glory of His Love

I cannot claim to know your thoughts
Nor understand your ways Oh Lord
For all of life is in my hands
And your knowledge is too wonderful for me
I cannot count the grains of sand
Or turn the tide at my command
But this one thing I know for sure
That your sovereignty is righteous and secure

Lord you reign in glory
Lord you reign in glory
And let your spirit reign in heaven
Let it reign in me

Softness That I See

The sun rose slowly
Like a dolphin from the sea
A soft smooth surface
Shining vibrantly.

Clouds with rounded curves
Filling the empty skies
With visions of my imagination
That I would seek to find.

The sand upon the shore
Feels silky in my hand
And waves that beat against the rocks
A powerful soothing roar.

The feathers of a love bird
Ever bright and colourful
Hides the soft melodic rhythm
Of a heartbeat strong and sure.

The hazy shade of sunset
And the lazy twilight mood
Casting away my dreams
And the softness that I see.

To Dream

You could hear the wind howling around the corners of the house and there was a constant pitter patter of rain on the corrugated iron roof. The sun was trying in vain to shine through the darkness of the grey rain clouds.

As each blast of wind hit the old wooden house it felt as if it was going to lift up and blow away. I tried to keep my eyes open but I couldn't. I dozed off and started to dream.

I was a bird flying through the air above the clouds. The sun was shining on the clouds making them look like a buckled silver plate shining in the sun.

I swooped down through the silver grey cloud. Through the cloud and out the other side to see vast paddocks of long green and brown grass swaying gently in the soft spring breeze.

I woke up. The dream seemed like an eternity. The wind was still blowing but the rain had stopped. The sun was shining now and I went outside. On each blade of grass the sun reflected off the raindrops and made it look like someone had sprinkled glitter on the fields. Everyone else was still inside so I decided to enjoy the moment by myself. I ran through the long grass. Each blade of long thin grass gave off its drops of rain and soaked my clothes. When I could run no more, I stopped and lay down. The long grass gave way and the rest formed a wall around me. The wind was still blowing but I could not feel it. The tops of the grass were still swaying in the breeze. Once again in the peacefulness of the paddock, I drifted off and started to dream of a silver cloud, sunshine and paddocks of long green grass.

It Really Hurts

It really hurts when someone dies
Looking for Grandpa and there he lies
People ask is this really true
To me it just came out of the blue
I always talk to him sometimes often
But there he is now in the coffin
I don't know what to do anymore
Just go in the room and shut the door
When a death comes, it hurts too long
Waiting for him to sing me his song
It really hurts when someone dies
Nothing I can do but just break down and cry.

Through the eyes of a child

Did I do something wrong
To deserve this pain?
Did I say anything harsh
To give you shame?

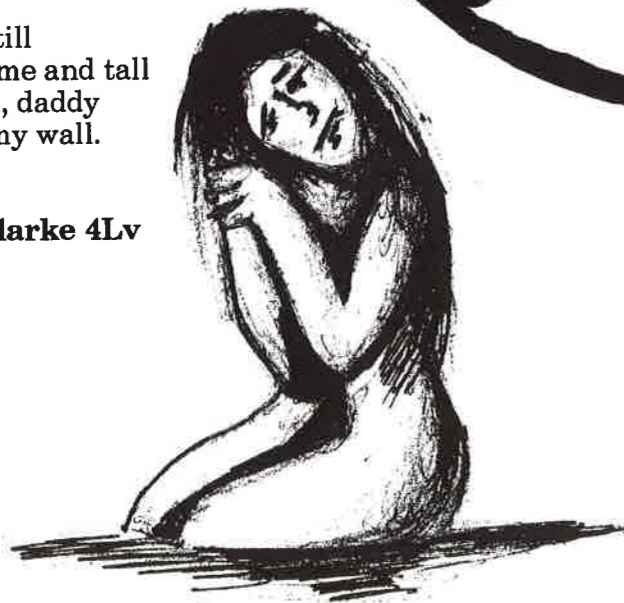

Did I stain your favourite coat?
Did I make you mad?
Talk to me
You're making me sad

Don't just close your eyes
Look at my tears
Don't you even care
To know my fears?

It's Monday today, dad
You have to read me my book
Don't you even care to Give me a look.

I know you're still
Loving, handsome and tall
You're not dead, daddy
You're still on my wall.

Abusing Mind, Body and Soul

Scared she walks the streets alone
In the early hours of the morning
When we are snuggled in bed
She is rushing home.

An old rusted car passes by
You can hear sighs of relief
Suddenly the car takes a U turn
It's heading back in her direction.

Looking for help, shelter, safety
The car pulls up beside her
A stranger steps out
Drags her to nearby bushes and trees.

Her screams cannot be heard,
Trees sway in disgust
Dogs holler for attention
One star in the sky, shining bright on them.

He finally leaves with a grin
She's left lying there scared,
shivering, shoddy.

Found by a nearby neighbour
The damage already done,
The man departs
Taking her confidence and stability.

She struggles with life,
Dwelling in the negative,
Forgetting the future.
Violation has taken her heart and soul.

For days now all she could do was lie silently in her bed and only occasionally would you hear her painful moan that echoed down the long, cold corridor. Her condition was deteriorating.

As I lay still in my bed, I was constantly thinking of her and praying that she would survive the horrible sickness she had.

All was quiet, then suddenly I heard the sound of her bedside bell ringing frantically. (This was her way of communicating when she was in trouble and needed assistance.) My heart started to pound hard and fast. I ran to her room expecting to find my mother lying in bed gasping for air and fighting for her life. But instead all I found was my little brother playing with the bell.

I gave a long sigh of relief, checked on my mother, put my little brother back to bed and returned to my room still slightly shaking.

Hours passed, I lay awake thinking, praying and hoping that she would last through the night. I was slowly falling asleep when the bell sounded once again. But this time there were only a few rings, then nothing, just the sound of the wind rustling through the trees and the garden gate squeaking. I started to panic again, only this time I knew that something was very wrong. I sprang from my bed and ran towards my mother's room. I hesitated at the door before I gained enough confidence to go in.

I took a deep breath and walked slowly through the door.
She lay still on her bed, her face seemed very pale, almost deep blue. There wasn't a sound in the room, not even the painful moan that she sometimes made.

I knew that if I did not do something then, she would be surely gone forever. I jogged my memory back to when I was at school and was taught CPR and knew that the time for me to use it had come.

I screamed for help hoping that someone other than my little brother would hear me. I then tried to do what I thought was the right way of doing CPR. Only minutes had passed but it seemed like forever. I was slowly beginning to get really frustrated with myself, I could not get her to start breathing again. No matter what I did, nothing seemed to work.

I sensed something very strange standing behind me,
then heard a voice calling my name, the voice was familiar. I turned towards the door and saw my grandmother standing there - but how could this be,
she had been dead for almost fifteen years. I felt weak and thought I was dreaming. She started to speak to me.

"My dear child, do not be afraid, your mother is here with me and your grandfather here in heaven. She will no longer go through the painful suffering. You did both us and your mother proud the way you showed strength and courage and the way you hid the fear from your brother. You are free now to do, as you please. James will not suffer and he will be well looked after. If you ever need me my dear child, we will always be by your side to guide you.
We must go now."

She handed me a red rose, gave me a gentle kiss on the cheek like she always used to do, told me she loved me and then turned and walked slowly down the corridor. I ran after her but by the time I reached the door she had gone.

I yelled out her name, but there was no response. I leaned against the wall, slowly eased my way into a crouching position, held the rose close to my heart
and thought of my mother - her cheerful laughter
that could always bring a smile to even the saddest face, she was always there when you needed someone to talk to or needed a shoulder to cry on. I was in a world of my own, my emotions took over my mind, I slowly drifted off to sleep.

The sound of the morning birds singing in the trees woke me. I twisted my body and peered through my mother's bedroom door. She lay still without a single sound. My eyes filled with tears as I turned back around and noticed that there on the floor
beside me was the red rose.

Friendship

Dedicated To Danny Sekona

The friendship we have is like no other
 Because we say we share one brother
 This brother of ours has fallen in dust
 Which leaves our hearts and minds at a loss
 The wounds and stabs from knives are large
 With no suspects, evidence, or victims to charge
 We formed a gang called N.B.C.
 That sets the anger and hate free
 Our streets one day will need
 To seek revenge by uplifting peace
 His memorial slowly makes its way
 While we wait to reunite that day
 As we unveil him on Christmas together,
 Nela rests in peace for ever.

Love you — always,

My Lover, a Killer

I am in love, blindfolded love
 The lover I have, soothes my pains
 Eases my miseries, colours my brain.
 The lover I have, kills me slow and tenderly
 Picks me up, dying for her presence eagerly
 Her colour spotless white, kills me every bite,
 I make love to her time and time again,
 Not knowing that she is more than just a stain.
 She causes me to go in debt,
 Just to hold on to her,
 Blindfolded love to a cigarette.

Yesterday Today and Tomorrow

You were there in my yesterday
 You filled an empty past
 There you made your home
 Inside my lonely heart
 To give me love, faith
 And above all care
 In my darkest hour of need
 You were always there
 Like a beam of light
 You came into my day
 To chase off grey clouds
 That got in my way
 I asked the Lord for someone
 Amazing, pure and true
 And I guess in many ways
 He answered me with you
 Then things went fast
 And then went wrong
 And now today
 You are gone
 I've searched the world
 In every way
 But can't find my gift
 Of yesterday
 So now I sit here
 Full of sorrow
 Wishing you in
 In my tomorrow.

Love Hurts

Feelings that linger pour down in rain
 Sensing and feeling inside the pain
 We once had it all but it all slipped away
 The love that once grew began to fade
 Our binding broke and stayed in the past
 Now I'm left with this hole in my heart
 Hand in hand with another you want
 Jealousy, Hurt, Anger...I wept
 This couldn't be happening, it wasn't for real
 It isn't easy for love to heal.

By Tracy Vakaafi

I Must Not

I must not learn to love you
 For you're someone else's girl
 I must not long to hold you
 For you're someone else's joy
 I must not dream about you
 Your heart's with someone else
 And I must not let my eyes light up
 When someone calls your name
 For you're someone else's girlfriend
 But I love you just the same.

Express The Image

Graffited shoes and red shorts
Girlfriend of a gangster
Confidently
Striding through a black neighbourhood
Riding on fame short lived
Express the image
With a "Touch of Class"
She breathes

A free spirit
They cannot tie her down
Hurt in bondage
Held in prejudice
She hesitates
Actions uncontrolled
The situation prevails

Like a boomerang's
Unjustified direction
Hitting all four corners
She dances
It echoes in the corridor
The image expressed
Proven to be recognised
She knows
And is waiting

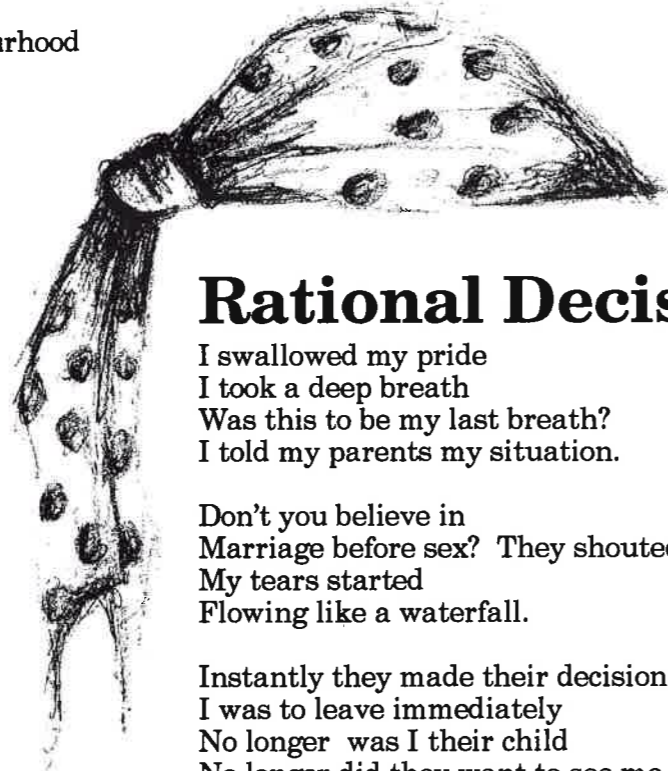

Striving
Burnt out
Talent takes over
God given
And stretched to the extreme
Her potential has no boundaries

Jungle fever
The mood of today
Where black American heroes
Play piano in the dark
Death at the bus stop
They know how to talk in her hometown

Boys to men she knows the difference
Over the limit
Destroying her soul
Seeking her destiny

The everchanging image
Express
The homies, if insane
They understand
She's different from the rest

Rational Decision

I swallowed my pride
I took a deep breath
Was this to be my last breath?
I told my parents my situation.

Don't you believe in Marriage before sex? They shouted.
My tears started
Flowing like a waterfall.

Instantly they made their decision
I was to leave immediately
No longer was I their child
No longer did they want to see me.

They did not care how I felt
They did not care, that I was Sorry, suicidal, afraid.
They only cared what other people
Thought and would say.

I had one last drop of hope
My boyfriend!
He was my last breath of faith.
I loved him like my parents,
He would never neglect me like they did.

Telling him what happened and why
I could sense something was wrong.
He could not sit still
He could not look me in the eye
He did not feel my pain.
The pain in my eyes
Voice, heart and stomach.

All he said was,
Sorry I don't love you anymore,
There's nothing I can do.

Look Twice

Somebody calling, whistling
A funny sort of sound
I wonder who it is
So I decided to turn around
Looking in the direction
I see the guy wear
Lavalava and jandals
Must be the latest craze
He beckons me over
Acting the real stud
I gave him one look and shouted
"Get off my back you spud!"
"You ask for hiding"
Man his English was bad
But as I took a closer look
I saw it was Dad.

Brat

I have a little brat
Who's a pain in the neck
She's like a little rat
Who always looks a wreck

She starts with a T
And ends with a E
Kids think she's so cool
But she's nothing but a fool

Always screaming here and there
And thinking she's a princess fair
Making your ears ring like bells
Which makes you feel like you're in hell

So I'm telling you right now
You don't want the brat from hell
So get yourself a little brother
At least he isn't any bother

As Years go by

As Years go by
Our loved ones, our friends
We all shall cherish
Our future and our relations
Seeking through the future
And flicking back the past
When you're down and not feeling bright
Reach out your hand and I'll give you light
Warmth, love and caring too
This all shows what a friend can do.
Bringing out the pleasure in you
Make love not war
And God bless you.

Trespassers

Silently, keeping my head to the ground, listening for any sign of footsteps. I was frightened, and not a muscle in my body would move. I wondered if the man had gone, I wondered if John was still somewhere around here. Did they get him? I asked myself that question over and over again. John was my best friend and we had come into this place together, just for some apples. I thought to myself what if he had gone without me. I could feel an outrage of anger forming inside my head. What was I angry at John for? It was our decision to come in here, but wasn't it our decision to go out together? I stopped thinking about John and thought about that man and his two dogs and his double barrellled shot gun, which made him think he was a god, punishing people for being bad. I was beginning to see his face again, that face, the one you'd see in a horror movie, him and his unshaved beard, yellow stained teeth, chewing on his tobacco, and those eyes, with such evil in them. You could look into those eyes of his and feel something cold and sharp pressing onto your heart, the feeling that meant, one move and you're dead. Suddenly I began to hear footsteps. They were moving as in a pace of timing, one after another, going faster and faster. Closer it came, I was scared. Should I get up and run, should I stay and see if he runs right past me? I made a quick decision and put my hands across the back of my head, keeping face down in the wet grass. I could hear someone now, he was getting closer, he was running and I could hear him panting for breath. I could feel him slow down and he was not that far away from me. I closed my eyes and started to say a prayer, asking God to forgive me and that I would change if I got out of here alive! Suddenly the person who was running ran right on top of me and with his sudden surprise he tripped and fell hard on the ground causing a big thud. I looked up at him and he was screaming and saying, "Please don't shoot me!" I looked close at him and it was John. I started laughing and then he hit me. He was angry at me but I was also angry at him. During our commotion, we did not hear the man behind us, except for when a shot came from his gun and caused the ground beside us to jump up in little particles of dirt. John and I jumped up and ran for our lives. I heard another shot and felt something rip open the skin off my back and eat through my flesh. The pain, it was awful. I fell flat on my face and looked up at John and tried to reach out to him, then I blacked out.
